RE-ISSUED FOLLOWING AN AMENDMENT TO THE BELOW TEXT

NEW PLA PUBLICATION PORT INFORMATION GUIDE

The Port of London Authority has published a Port Information Guide which has been produced for all river users, ships agents, Masters, ship's officers, vessel owners and operators, publishers of nautical information and any other party that needs nautical information.

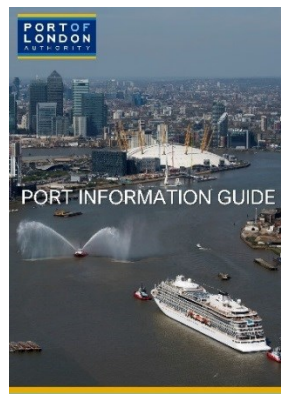

This guide contains an A to Z listing of key Port of London information for all port users.

The Port Information Guide is a live document and will continuously be updated. Users are therefore encouraged, to not print or save copies of the guide for extended periods of time and always refer to our website for the latest version.

Ships agents in particular, should provide responses to vessel enquiries with direct references to the guide, only consulting the Authority where an item is not yet included.

The guide can be accessed on our website via the below link:
