

NOTICE TO MARINERS U10 of 2017

BRENTFORD AND MORTLAKE REACH (UPPER) TIDEFEST

On Sunday 10th September 2017, between 10:00 and 18:00, the Angling Trust will be hosting Tidefest at Strand-on-the-Green with a variety of river and foreshore activities. These activities include; kayaking, standup paddleboarding, an angling competition, river dipping, seine netting, foreshore walks, trips to Oliver's Ait and 45-minute passenger boat trips from Kew Pier.

Mariners are advised that a number of novice paddlers accompanied by group leaders, will be boating from the Strand-on-the-Green foreshore, navigating between Kew Road Bridge and Kew Railway Bridge on north shore, namely inside the Kew trot moorings and Oliver's Ait. The full programme of activities can be viewed at www.thamestidefest.net

Persons in charge of vessels are to navigate with care and pay particular attention to their speed and wash when passing.

Further details will be broadcast by London VTS on VHF Channel 14.
