CROSS DEEP TO HORSE REACH LOWER

RIVER CLOSURES

HASLER (KAYAK MARATHON) FINAL

On Sunday 24th September 2017 the Hasler (Kayak Marathon) Finals will take place between Richmond Bridge and Teddington Lock. Approximately 600 kayaks will participate in two races under the auspices British Canoeing.

There will be two river closures between Richmond Road Bridge and Teddington Lock, at the start of the two scheduled races for approximately 45-minutes each;

Closure One – will commence at 10:15 until 11:00,

Closure Two – will commence at 12:45 until 13:30

The river closures will be managed by two Harbour Service Launches exhibiting blue flashing lights will patrol at either end of the closure area (call sign prefix “THAMES PATROL”).

Vessels navigating in the area are to proceed with caution and pay special attention to their wash.

Further details will be promulgated by London VTS on VHF Channel 14 during routine river broadcasts.
