An Act to re-enact with amendments and to extend certain local enactments in force within the county of Kent; to make further provision in regard to the improvement, health and local government of that county; to confer further powers upon the local authorities of that county; to empower the Thanet District Council to acquire by agreement the undertaking of the company of proprietors of Margate Pier and Harbour; and for other purposes.

(27 July 1981)

Whereas

(1) By virtue of the Local Government Act 1972 (hereinafter referred to as “the Act of 1972”) the county of Kent (hereinafter referred to as “the county”) was constituted on 1st April 1974, so as to consist of an area comprising the county borough of Canterbury and the administrative county of Kent as existing immediately before the passing of the Act of 1972;

(2) Numerous local enactments are in force in the county or parts of the county and by section 262 of the Act of 1972 it is provided that, subject to certain modifications, certain of these shall continue to apply to, but only to, the area, things or persons to which or to whom they applied before 1st April 1974;

(3) It is further provided by the said section 262 that certain local statutory provisions shall cease to have effect at the end of 1984;

(4) It is expedient that certain of these should be re-enacted with amendments and applied to the whole of the county or to parts of the county; that certain other local statutory provisions should continue to have effect and that other statutory provisions in force in or relating to the county should be repealed;

(5) It is expedient to make further provision for the improvement, health and local government of the county and to extend and enlarge in various respects the powers of the local authorities of the county;

(6) It is expedient to empower the Thanet District Council to acquire by agreement the undertaking of the company of proprietors of Margate Pier and Harbour and to confer further power on that Council with regard to the undertaking;

(7) It is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Act should be enacted;

(8) The purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament;

(9) In relation to the promotion of the Bill for this Act the requirements of section 239 of the Act of 1972 have been observed:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows –

10. Street numbers.

(1) A District Council may allocate to the buildings in a street in their district such numbers as they think fit.

(2) Where a number has, or numbers have, been allocated to a building under this section or under section 64 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847, the District Council may serve on the owner or occupier of the building a notice requiring him within such period, not being less than three weeks, as may be specified in the notice, to mark the building with that number, or those numbers, in such a way as to make the mark legible from the street.

(3) The owner or occupier of a building shall –
 (a) maintain the mark in such a way that it remains legible from the street; and
 (b) keep the view of the mark from the street unobstructed to such extent as it practicable.

(4) A District Council may alter the number or numbers allocated to a building, and where they do so subsections (2) and (3) above shall apply to the altered number or numbers.

(5) A District Council may, instead of requiring a building or premises within the curtilage of a building to be marked with a number of numbers under this section, require it to be marked with such other means of identification as they may, at the request of the owner or occupier, allow; and Subsections (2) and (3) above shall have effect accordingly.

(6) An owner or occupier of a building who without reasonable excuse –
(a) fails to comply with a notice served on him under subsection (2) above; or
(b) contravenes subsection (3) above;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50.

(7) The following provisions of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847 shall cease to have effect in the County –

12. Application of private street works code to parts of public street.

(1) Notwithstanding anything in the private street works code where it appears to the County Council that a new street has been formed in the County by reasons of additions made to an existing footpath, bridleway or other rights of way maintainable at the public expense (not being or comprising a carriageway) otherwise than by the giving up for the purpose by the County Council of lands owned by them, the County Council may carry out street works under the provisions of the private street works code in respect of such street and apportion the expenses thereof on the premises fronting or adjoining such street or such part thereof as if no part of the said street was so maintainable.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in the private street works code the County Council may carry out street works under the provisions of the private street works code throughout the width of a street notwithstanding that part of the width consists of a highway maintainable at the public expense but save in a case falling within the provisions of subsection (1) above the County Council shall be entitled to apportion against the premises as relates to the portion of the street which is not so maintainable.

(3) For the purposes of any apportionment under subsection (2) above premises fronting a street shall be deemed to front the portion of the street which is not maintainable at the public expense.

(4) For the purposes of the private street works code, as applied by this section, a railway shall not be deemed to front a footpath, bridleway or other right of way or any additions thereto solely by reason of its being adjacent thereto.

14. Dust, etc., from building operations.

(1) This section applies to any building operation, including any work of demolition or the cleansing of any building or structure, which is either carried out in the open air or carried out in such circumstances that dust from the operation is emitted into the open air except that, in any district in which section 29 of the Act of 1961 has effect in accordance with section 27 (control of Demolitions) of this Act, this section does not apply to any demolitions to which subsection (1) of the said section 29 applies.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (6) below, a District Council may give notice to any person carrying out, or controlling the carrying out of, an operation to which this section applies in their district requiring him, within such time as is specified in the notice, to take such reasonably practicable steps as are so specified to reduce the emission of dust from the operation.

(3) In considering what steps are reasonably practicable for the purposes of subsection (2) above, the District Council shall have regard, amongst other matters, to the requirements of safety and safe working conditions, any relevant provisions of any code of practice approved under section 16 of the Health and Safety at work etc Act 1974 and to the financial implications.

(4) Any person aggrieved by a notice under subsection (2) above may appeal to the County Court and the judge may make such order, either confirming or quashing a varying the notice, as he thinks fit but shall not so vary the notice that it is more onerous than the notice given by the district Council.

(a) Subject to any order made on appeal subsection (4) above, any person who fails to comply with a notice under subsection (2) above shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200 and to a daily fine not exceeding £20.

(b) In any proceedings under this subsection it shall be a defence to show that the quantity of dust emitted into the open air was not materially greater than would have been emitted if the notice had been complied with.

(a) If, before the carrying out of any operation to which this section applies, the person who intends to carry it out applies to the district council for their consent to the operation giving particulars of –

(i) the operation and the method by which it is to be carried out; and

(ii) the steps proposed to be taken to reduce the emission of dust from the operation; and the district council consider that, on the carrying out of the operation in accordance with the application, they would not serve a notice under subsection (2) above in respect of that operation, the district council may give their consent to the operation for the purposes of this section, either conditionally or subject to such conditions as may be specified in the consent.

(b) In acting under this subsection the district council shall have regard to the matters specified in subsection (3) above.

(c) If the district council do not, within 21 days from the receipt of an application under the subsection, give to the applicant a consent, with or without conditions, which is acceptable to the applicant, he may appeal to the County Court.

(d) On any appeal under this subsection the judge may make such order wither confirming the refusal of the consent or varying any condition subject to which the consent has been given or ordering the giving of the consent with or without conditions as he thinks fit but shall not so vary any conditions that the are more onerous than those specified by the district council.

(7) In this section “dust” includes chemicals in solution and grit.

15. Power to order alterations of chimneys.

(1) If, upon a complaint by a district council under this section, a magistrates' court is satisfied that any gas, vapour or fumes from a chimney of a building in the district is injurious or likely to be injurious to health or a nuisance, the court may make an order requiring the owner of the chimney within such time as may be specified in the order –

- (a) to cause it to be raised to a height so specified; or
- (b) to cause such other means for remedying the cause of complaint to be adopted as the court thinks fit.

(2) The court shall not make an order under this section unless it is satisfied that the work to be done in pursuance of the order need not involve an expenditure exceeding –

- (a) in the case of single private dwelling-house £500; and
- (b) in any other case £1,500;

or, in any case, such greater sum as may be specified in an order made by the Secretary of State by statutory instrument under this section.

(3) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with an order made under this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50 and to a daily fine not exceeding £5.

(4) Unless the Secretary of State has granted scheduled monument consent under sections 3 and 4 of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 or listed building consent under section 55 of the Act of 1971 for the alteration of any chimney in a scheduled monument or listed building no complaint shall be made to a magistrates' court under this section in respect of any chimney in such monument or building.

(5) This section does not apply to premises which are subject to the Factories Act 1961 or the Alkali &c Works Regulation Act 1906 or to such class of premises as may be prescribed for the purposes of section 1(1)(d) of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974.

(6) In this section “chimney” includes structures, openings and ducts of any kind from which any gas, vapour or fumes may be emitted whether or not as the product of combustion and reference to a chimney of a building includes reference to a chimney of a building which serves the whole or a part of a building but is structurally separate therefrom.

(1) This section applies to any house –

- (a) which is occupied by persons who do not form a single household; or
- (b) which is one of two or more houses or other buildings supplied with water by one common supply pipe.

(2) Where a district council are satisfied that, by reason of any injury to, or defeat in, a water fitting in, or the supply pipe for supplying water to, any occupied house of houses to which this section applies in the district, any such house, or any part thereof has ceased to be supplied with water sufficient for the domestic purposes of the occupants the district council may, without prejudice to any other action which they may be authorised to take under any other enactment, repair or renew the pipe or execute such works and provide or repair such fittings and do such other things as they may consider necessary to secure that the supply of water is restored and recover from the owner of the house or, as the case may be, from the owners of the houses, the expenses necessarily incurred by them in so doing not exceeding £200 or such greater sum as may be specified in an order made by the Secretary of State by statutory instrument under this section.

(3) Except in cases of emergency, admission to any premises shall not be demanded as of right for the purpose of doing any work under subsection (2) above unless not less than 24 hours' notice of the intended entry has been given to the occupier.

(a) In proceedings to recover expenses under subsection (2) above the court may inquire whether those expenses ought to be borne wholly or in part by some person, being the occupier of the premises in respect of which they were incurred, other than the defendant in the proceedings and, subject as provided in paragraph (b) below, the court may make such order concerning the expenses or their apportionment as appears to the court to be just.

(b) The court shall not order the expenses or any part of them to be borne by any person other than the defendant in the proceedings unless the court is satisfied that the other person has, at the instance of the defendant had due notice of the proceedings and an opportunity of being heard.

(5) The district council may if they think fit themselves bear the whole or any part of any expenses recoverable under this section.

(6) Before, or, in case of emergency, as soon as possible after, exercising the powers of subsection (2) above in relation to any premises the district council shall notify the statutory water undertakers within whose limits of supply the premises are situated.

(7) In this section –

“house” means a dwelling-house, whether a private dwelling-house or not; and “supply pipe” and “water fitting” have meanings given by Schedule 3 to the Water Act 1945.

30. Closing of flood doors.

(1) The provisions of this section shall have effect for the prevention of tidal flooding through such an opening as is described in subsection (2) below in flood protection works in the county.

(2) The opening referred to in subsection (1) above is one which is furnished with a door or gate or dam boards or any similar structure (hereinafter referred to as “flood doors”) for closure of the opening against flooding.

(3) The district council may by notice give directions to the occupier of any land or premises in their district on which is situated an opening as aforesaid to close the flood doors, and keep them securely closed throughout such periods, as may be specified in the notice and in particular to keep the flood doors securely closed whenever necessary for preventing the entry of tidal waters:

Provided that in giving any notice under this section to the generating board in respect of any such opening as is maintained by that board for the purposes of the cooling water system of an electricity generating station, the district council shall have proper regard to the need for securing that compliance with the directions given in the notice will cause no unnecessary interference with the generation of electricity at such generating station.

(4) If the flood doors have not been closed and kept securely closed in compliance with directions given under this section, then –

- (a) without prejudice to any right of entry conferred under any other enactment, any person duly authorised by the district council who gave the directions may enter and close the flood doors or cause them to be closed;
- (b) the occupier of the said land or premises shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000.

(5) The district council may from time to time by notice to the occupier of the land or premises alter or revoke any directions given by them under subsection (3) above.

(6) Any person aggrieved by any directions of the district council under subsection (3) above or by any alteration or revocation of such directions may appeal to a magistrates' court on the grounds that the directions are unreasonable in character or extent and on the hearing of any such appeal the court may confirm, vary or amend the directions or alteration or revocation thereof which is the subject of the appeal.

- (a) The occupier of any land or premises to whom directions have been given by notice under this section shall keep a copy of such directions displayed in a conspicuous position on the land or premises.

(b) An occupier who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with the requirements of this subsection shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50.

(8) Any directions given under this section shall be a local land charge, and shall be binding upon the occupier for the time being of the land or premises.

33. Touting, hawking, photographing etc.

(1) A district council may designate, in accordance with subsection (5) below, any of the following places, or any part of such places, in the district as places to which this section applies for any of the purposes of subsection (2) below –

- (a) a public off-street car park, recreation ground, garden or other park, pleasure ground or open space under the management and control of a local authority;
- (b) a street or esplanade, parade, promenade, marine drive or way to which the public commonly have access, whether or not as of right;
- (c) the seashore:

Provided that the district council shall not designate –

- (i) for the purpose of subsection (2)(b) below, any street which is a licensed traders' street or a prohibited street under Part VI (Street trading) of this Act or any highway specified in a control order under section 7 of the Act of 1976; or
- (ii) for the purpose of subsection (2)(c)(ii) below, any street.

(2) Any person who, in a place designated under this section –

- (a) gives reasonable cause for annoyance to any person by touting for a hotel, lodging house, restaurant or other place of refreshment, for a shop, for a theatre or other place of amusement or recreation, for a hackney carriage, public service vehicle or other conveyance or for a ship or boat; or
- (b) without the consent of the district council or in breach of any condition subject to which the council's consent is given, hawks, sells or offers or exposes for sale any thing; or
- (c) without the consent of the district council or in breach of any condition subject to which the council's consent is given –
 - (i) photographs any person by way of trade or business; or
 - (ii) offers or exposes for hire any vehicle, chair or seat or any animal to ride;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200.

(3) The conditions of consent referred to in subsection (2)(b) and (c) above include conditions as to the times or period for which the consent is valid and the payment for the consent of such reasonable fee to cover the expense of the district council in dealing with applications for such consents as the council may by resolution prescribe; and, subject to any condition as to the period for which the consent is valid, any such consent may be revoked by notice to the person to whom the consent was given.

(4) A person aggrieved by –

- (a) the withholding by the district council of consent referred to in subsection (2)(b) or (c) above;
- (b) the conditions subject to which the council give such consent; or
- (c) the revocation of such consent under subsection (3) above;

may appeal to a magistrates' court which may dismiss or allow the appeal or may vary any conditions imposed by the council.

(5)

- (a) Before designating any place for any of the purposes of subsection (2) above the district council shall give notice of their proposal by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the district, and by posting a copy of the notice in the places to which it relates, stating that objections to the proposal may be made to the proper officer of the council within a time, not less than 28 days after the giving of the notice, specified in the notice.
- (b) After taking into consideration any objections made in accordance with paragraph (a) above, the district council may by resolution designate, as places to which this section applies for any of the purposes of subsection (2) above, all or any, or any part, of the places specified in the notice given under that paragraph.

(6) A resolution under subsection (5) (b) above shall come into force on such day as shall be specified by a notice given in the same manner as a notice given under subsection (5) (a) above, being a day, not less than 28 days after the day on which notice is given under this subsection.

(7) This section shall not prohibit –

- (a) the doing of anything on land by the owner or occupier of the land, or by any person with the consent of the owner or occupier, or the doing of anything on land forming part of a highway by the owner or occupier of land fronting that part;
- (b) the selling or offering or exposing for sale of any thing to persons on premises fronting on, or adjacent to, a place, designated under this section, whether on those premises or in that part of any highway on which the premises front or to which they are adjacent;
- (c) the taking of a photograph for the purpose of making it available for publication in a newspaper or periodical if the photographer is employed as such by or on behalf of the owner or publisher of a newspaper or periodical or carries on a business which consists in, or includes, selling or supplying photographs for such publication;
- (d) the Wardens and Assistants of Rochester Bridge in the County of Kent, or any person with their consent exercising any rights which they could have exercised if this section had not been enacted; and the district council shall not withhold their consent under subsection (2)(b) above to the selling or offering or exposing for sale by any person of newspapers and periodicals except on the ground that their consent has already been given to a sufficient number of other persons.

(8) Before giving consent under this section to the hawking, selling or offering or exposing for sale of any thing in a highway, the district council shall consult the highway authority.

(9) Nothing in this section shall apply to any land owned by or vested in the Dover Harbour Board.

34. Application, designation of streets and interpretation of Part VI.

- (1) This Part shall apply in any district as from the appointed day.
- (2) For the purpose of controlling street trading in the district the district council may, by resolution passed in accordance with this Part, designate any street in the district –
- (a) as a prohibited street, that is to say, a street in which street trading is unlawful; or
 - (b) as a licensed traders' street, that is to say, a street in which street trading is unlawful except by a person holding a street trader's licence granted to him under this Part.
- (3) A designation made under subsection (2) above may be varied or rescinded by resolution and the provisions of this Part shall apply to any such resolution to vary or rescind the designation of a prohibited street or licensed traders' street as they apply to the resolution for the original designation.
- (4) In this Part –
- “container” includes anything other than a stall used for the display of any thing;
 - “licensee” means the holder of a street trader's licence;
 - “stall” includes a barrow or other vehicle;
 - “street trading” means selling or offering or exposing for sale any thing in a street.
- (5) References in this Part to application for, or grant of, a street trader's licence include references to application for, or grant of, the renewal of a street trader's licence.

35. Resolution to prohibit or control street trading.

(1) Where the district council propose to pass a resolution under this section to designate any street in the district as a prohibited street or licensed traders' street they shall publish notice of their proposal containing a draft of the resolution –

- (a) by sending it to the highway authority and the chief officer of police;
- (b) by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the district; and
- (c) by posting it in a conspicuous position at each end of every street referred to in the draft.

(2) The notice shall state that objections to the proposed resolution may be made in writing to the district council before such day, not earlier than 28 days after the council have complied with subsection (1) above, as may be specified in the notice.

(3) The district council shall, after taking into consideration objections made as provided in subsection (2) above –

- (a) pass a resolution in terms of the draft; or
- (b) pass a resolution in terms of the draft with modifications, but not so as to add any street to those referred to in the draft nor so as to designate as a prohibited street any street which in the draft was to be designated as a licensed traders' street; or
- (c) proceed no further on the draft resolution:

Provided that –

- (i) they shall not include in the resolution any street belonging to, or maintainable by, the British Railways Board without the consent of that board; and
- (ii) they shall not designate any other street as a licensed traders' street without the consent of the highway authority.

(4) Where the district council have passed a resolution under subsection (3) above they shall publish notice of it in the manner required by subsection (1) above for notice of the draft.

(5) A notice published under subsection (4) above shall state the day, not less than 28 days after the district council have complied with that subsection, on which the designations made by the resolution are to take effect; and different days may be stated for different streets.

36. Application for licence.

(1) The applicant for a street trader's licence shall –

- (a) state his name and address, the place or places in which, and the days on which and the times at which, he applies to trade and what he applies to sell;
 - (b) describe the stall or container that he proposes to use in his trade;
 - (c) give the district council such other information as they may reasonably require; and
 - (d) except on application for the grant of the renewal of a street trader's licence, supply two identical photographs of the applicant.
- (2)
- (a) The applicant shall with his application pay such reasonable fee to cover the expense of the district council in dealing with such applications as the council may by resolution prescribe.
 - (b) The district council may dispense with, or reduce, a fee payable under this subsection.
- (3) The district council may grant the application, or refuse it, or grant it with modifications relating to the place, the days on and the times at which he may trade, the nature of the trade, or the use of a stall or container.
- (4) The grounds upon which the district council may refuse the application or grant it with modifications are that –
- (a) the applicant is unsuitable by reason of misconduct or incapacity;
 - (b) there is not enough space for street trading as specified in the application without undue inconvenience to persons using the street;
 - (c) in the case of renewal, the applicant has failed to avail himself, or avail himself to a reasonable extent, of the rights conferred by the licence that he holds.
- (5) Before exercising the powers conferred by subsection (3) above to refuse the application or grant it with modifications, the district council shall serve on the applicant not less than 14 days' notice of their proposal to exercise them and of their grounds for doing so; and if they propose to exercise those powers on the ground specified in subsection (4)(a) above, the notice shall include particulars of the misconduct or incapacity alleged.
- (6) If the applicant, within 7 days of service on him of a notice under subsection (5) above, requires the district council to give him an opportunity to be heard in support of his application, the council shall, before exercising the power conferred by sub-section(3) above to refuse the application or grant it with modifications, give him an opportunity to be heard by a committee or sub-committee of the district council.
- (7) Unless, within 8 weeks after an application has been duly made under this section, the district council have served notice under subsection (5) above, they shall be deemed to have granted the application.
- (8) The district council shall notify the applicant of their decision on his application as soon as may be after the proceedings required by subsections (5) and (6) above have been concluded; and, without prejudice to section 124 (Suspension of proceedings pending appeal) of this Act, until such notification the applicant, in the case of renewal, may continue to trade in accordance with his former licence, notwithstanding that it may have expired.
- (9) If the district council refuse the application or grant it with modifications, they shall in the notice under subsection (8) above state the grounds upon which they have done so.

53. Access for fire brigade.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) below, where plans for the erection or extension of a building are deposited with a district council in accordance with building regulations, the district council shall reject the plans unless after consultation with the fire authority they are satisfied that the plans show –

- (a) that there will be adequate means of access for the fire brigade to the building or, as the case may be, to the building as extended; and
- (b) that the building or, as the case may be, the extension of the building will not render inadequate existing means of access for the fire brigade to a neighbouring building.

(2) No requirement concerning means of access to a building or to a neighbouring building shall be made under this section in the case of a building to be erected or extended in pursuance of a planning permission granted upon an application made under the Act of 1971 unless notice of the provisions of this section is endorsed on or accompanies the planning permission.

57. Stacks to which Part IX applies.

(1) This Part applies to a stack which is not enclosed by any building which has been constructed in accordance with building regulations if –

- (a) it consists of, or contains mainly, any one or more of the materials specified in subsection (2) below; and
- (b) it exceeds any of the measurements for stacks of those materials specified in subsection (3) below.

(2) The materials referred to in subsection (1)(a) above are –

- (a) paper or cardboard;
- (b) plastics;
- (c) rags;
- (d) rubber, whether natural or synthetic, including rubber tyres; and
- (e) wood, whether or not cut into planks, boards, billets, logs or firewood or joined so as to form boards, crates, pallets, casks or barrels.

(3) The measurements referred to in subsection (1)(b) above are –

(a) for stacks of any materials, if any of the conditions specified in subsection (4) below are not fulfilled –

- (i) 3 metres in height;
- (ii) 50 cubic metres in capacity;

(b) for stacks of any materials not being a stack specified in paragraph (c) or (d) below, if the conditions specified in subsection (4) are fulfilled –

- (i) 5 metres in height;
- (ii) 450 cubic metres in capacity;
- (iii) 20 metres in any horizontal dimension;
- (iv) 235 square metres in any horizontal section;

(c) for stacks consisting wholly of paper, cardboard or rags, if the conditions specified in subsection (4) below are fulfilled –

- (i) 5 metres in height;
- (ii) 750 cubic metres in capacity;
- (iii) 20 metres in any horizontal dimension;
- (iv) 235 square metres in any horizontal section;

(d) for stacks consisting wholly of wood, if the conditions specified in subsection (4) below are fulfilled –

- (i) 10 metres in height;
- (ii) 1,370 cubic metres in capacity;
- (iii) 20 metres in any horizontal dimension;
- (iv) 235 square metres in any horizontal section.

(4) The conditions referred to in subsection (3) (a) to (d) above are –

- (a) there is no other stack to which this Part applies within 4 metres;
- (b) there is an unobstructed access at least 4 metres wide round three of the sides of the stack or, if it is not rectangular, round three-quarters, measured continuously, of its perimeter;
- (c) no street is within 5 metres;
- (d) none of the following is on the same premises and within 6 metres, namely –
 - (i) a furnace or incinerator;

- (ii) a building;
- (iii) any compressed flammable gas including liquid gas and gas dissolved in liquid under pressure;
- (iv) a substance having a flash-point lower than 66 degrees Celsius when tested by any standard method.

(5) A stack is not one to which this Part applies if –

- (a) being a stack of a temporary nature in connection with works of construction, alteration, maintenance, repair or renewal of a railway line of the British Railways Board, it is alongside a railway line on premises occupied by that board for the purposes of their undertaking and is not on a site habitually used for the stacking or storage of any of the materials specified in subsection (2) above; or
- (b) it forms the load or part of the load of a railway wagon or of a mechanically propelled vehicle or of a trailer drawn or to be drawn by such a vehicle or is in a container to be carried on such a wagon, vehicle or trailer; or
- (c) it forms the cargo or part of the cargo of a vessel or, being in any area of a port, dock or quay which is for the time being held or used for the transit or cargoes, has been unloaded from, or is intended to be loaded on, a vessel at that port, dock or quay or, where an intention to load it has been abandoned, is of a temporary nature pending its removal from that area of the port, dock or quay; or
- (d) it is enclosed by any building owned, occupied or administered by statutory dock undertakers for the purposes of or in connection with their undertaking.

58. Unlawful stacks.

(1) Subject to subsection (2) of section 62 (Transitional provisions for Part IX) of this Act, as from the appointed day in the county, it is unlawful for a stack to which this Part applies to be on any premises in the county without the consent of the county council or in breach of any condition subject to which such consent is given.

(2) A person making application to the county council for a consent under this section shall provide such information for that purpose (including information about the materials to be stacked, the premises and the undertaking, trade or business conducted on the premises) as the county council may, within 28 days from the date on which the application is made, reasonably require.

(3) Where an application has been made to the county council for their consent under this section and the county council have failed, within 8 weeks, or such longer period as the applicant may allow, after the application was made to give notice to the applicant that they give or refuse their consent, or give it subject to conditions, the county council shall be deemed to have given their consent without conditions except any that have been accepted in the application.

(4) Where the county council have given a consent under this section to the stacking of materials on any premises –

(a) they may –

- (i) at the request of the owner of the materials or of the occupier of the premises; or
- (ii) on a change of the occupier of the premises; or
- (iii) on a change of circumstances which in their opinion creates or, as the case may be, increases the fire risks;

give notice to the owner of the materials or the occupier of the premises imposing conditions under this section, or adding to or varying any condition already imposed under this section; and

(b) they may at any time by notice to the owner of the materials or the occupier of the premises relax any conditions imposed under this section.

(5) The conditions which may be imposed under this section on a consent to the stacking of materials on any premises shall be such as, having regard to the reasonable requirements of the undertaking, trade or business conducted on the premises, appear to the county council to be reasonably necessary to prevent the outbreak of fire, to reduce the damage that fire will cause if it breaks out and to facilitate the fire fighting, including the provision of water for fire-fighting purposes:

Provided that where, on an application for consent under this section to the stacking of materials the county council are satisfied that by reason of those materials the stack does not create fire risks, the county council shall give their consent unconditionally.

123. Appeals to Secretary of State.

(1) On an appeal to the Secretary of State under any provision of this Act mentioned in subsection (2) below, the Secretary of State may at his discretion afford to the appellant and the local authority an opportunity of appearing before, and being heard by, a person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose.

(2) The provisions referred to in subsection (1) above are the following —
In section 62 (Transitional provisions for Part IX), subsection (3).

(3) On determining any such appeal, the Secretary of State shall give such directions, if any, as he considers appropriate for giving effect to his determination and, in the case of any appeal under the said section 59 may give directions for the granting of a consent unconditionally or such to such conditions as the county council would have been entitled to impose under section 58 (Unlawful stacks) of this Act.

(4) Where the Secretary of State gives a decision in proceedings on any such appeal the appellant or the local authority may appeal to the High Court against the decision on a point of law.

(5) At any stage of the proceedings on any such appeal the Secretary of State may state any question of law arising in the course of proceedings in the form of a special case for the decision of the High Court; and a decision of the High court on a case stated by virtue of this subsection shall be deemed to be a judgement of the court within the meaning of section 27 of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Consolidation) Act 1925 (jurisdiction of the Court of Appeal to hear and determine appeals from any judgement of the High Court).

(6) In this section “decision” includes a direction, and reference to the giving of a decision shall be construed accordingly.

132 Tidal Works.

(1) The following provisions in this section shall apply to tidal works, that is to say, works on, under or over tidal waters or tidal lands below the level of mean highwater springs, authorised by the following enactments —

(a) Margate Pier and Harbour Act 1871;

(b) Dover Corporation (Sea Defences) Act 1877;

(c) Margate Extension and Improvement Act 1988;

(d) Margate Pier and Harbour Order 1878;

(e) Margate Pier and Harbour Act 1900;

(f) Margate Corporation Act 1900;

(g) Margate Corporation Act 1926;

in substitution for statutory provisions repealed by this Act relating to the lighting, survey, abandonment or decay of, and injury to, those works, each of which is in this section referred to as “tidal work” and in respect of tidal works authorised by the enactments mentioned in paragraphs (a), (d) and (e), the following provisions of this Act shall have effect from the date of transfer as defined in section 90 (Interpretation and application of Part XIV) of this Act.

(a) In case of injury to or destruction or decay of a tidal work, or any part thereof, the owners of the work shall forthwith notify the corporation of Trinity House and shall lay down such buoys, exhibit such lights and take such other steps for preventing danger to navigation as the said corporation shall from time to time direct.

(b) If the owners fail to notify the Corporation of Trinity House as required by this subsection or to comply in any respect with a direction given under this subsection they shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum and on conviction on indictment to a fine.

(a) This subsection does not apply to the tidal works authorised by the Dover Corporation (Sea Defences) Act 1877.

(b) The owners of a tidal work to which this subsection applies shall at the outer extremity of that work exhibit every night from sunset to sunrise such lights, if any, and take such other steps for the prevention of danger to navigation as the Corporation of Trinity House shall from time to time direct.

(c) If the owners fail to comply in any respect with a direction given under this subsection they shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum and on conviction on indictment to a fine.

(a) Where a tidal work is abandoned, or suffered to fall into decay, the Secretary of State may by notice in writing require the owners of the work at their own expense either to repair and restore the work or any part thereof, or to remove the work and restore the site thereof to its former condition, to such an extent and within such limits as the Secretary of State thinks proper.

(b) Where a work consisting partly of a tidal work and partly of works on or over land above the level of mean high-water springs is abandoned or suffered to fall into decay and that part of the work on or over land above the mean high-water springs is in such condition as to interfere, or to cause reasonable apprehension that it may interfere with the right of navigation or other public rights over the foreshore, the Secretary of State may include that part of the work or any portion thereof in any notice under this subsection.

(c) If, on the expiration of 30 days after the date when a notice under this subsection is served upon the owners, they have failed to comply with the requirements of the notice, the Secretary of State may execute the works specified in the notice and any expenditure incurred by him in so doing shall be recoverable from the owners as a simple contract debt.

(5) The Secretary of State may at any time, if he deems it expedient, order a survey and examination of a tidal work, and any expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State in any such survey and examination shall be recoverable from the owners of the work as a simple contract debt.

(6) In this section “the statutory maximum” means the prescribed sum as defined in section 32 (9) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980.

✓ Law In Force

(1) Where it appears to a police officer or a duly authorised officer of the district council that any dog found in a highway or place of public resort is not in the charge of any person, he may seize the dog and may detain it until the owner has claimed it and paid all expenses incurred by reason of its detention.

(2) Where any dog so seized wears a collar having inscribed thereon or attached thereto the address of any person, or the owner of the dog is known, the chief officer of police or, as the case may be, the district council or any person authorised by him or them in that behalf, shall serve on the person whose address is given on the collar, or on the owner, a notice in writing stating that the dog has been so seized, and will be liable to be sold or destroyed if not claimed within seven clear days after the service of the notice.

(3) A notice under this section may be served either —

(a) by delivering it to the person on whom it is to be served; or

(b) by leaving it at that person's usual or last known place of abode, or at the address given on the collar; or

(c) by forwarding it by post in a prepaid letter addressed to that person at his usual or last known place of above, or at the address given on the collar.

(4) Where any dog so seized has been detained for seven clear days after the seizure, or, in the case of such a notice as aforesaid having been served with respect to the dog, then for seven clear days after the service of the notice, and the owner has not claimed the dog and paid all expenses incurred by reason of its detention, the chief officer of police, or, as the case may be, the district council or any person authorised by him or them in that behalf, may cause the dog to be sold or destroyed in a manner to cause as little pain as possible.

(5) No dog so seized shall be given or sold for the purposes of vivisection.

(6) The chief officer of police and the district council shall keep, or cause to be kept, one or more registers of all dogs seized under this section by him or them respectively which are not transferred to an establishment for the reception of stray dogs. The register shall contain a brief description of the dog, the date of the seizure and particulars as to the manner in which the dog is disposed of, and every such register shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by any member of the public on payment of a fee of one shilling.

(7) A dog seized under this section shall not be disposed of by transferring it to an establishment for the reception of stray dogs unless a register is kept for that establishment containing such particulars as to dogs received in the establishment as are above mentioned, and such register is open to inspection at all reasonable times by the public on payment of a fee not exceeding one shilling.

(8) The police officer or other person having charge of any dog detained under this section shall cause the dog to be properly fed and maintained.

(9) All expenses incurred by the police under this section shall be defrayed out of the police fund, and any money received by the police under this section shall be paid to the account of the police fund.

PART IISECTION 29 OF THE ACT OF 1961 AS HAVING EFFECT IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 27 (CONTROL OF DEMOLITIONS) OF THIS ACT

✓ Law In Force

29.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a local authority may serve a notice under this section on any person who undertakes the demolition of the whole or of part of a building.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to the demolition —

(a) of an internal part of a building where the building is occupied, and it is intended that it should continue to be occupied, or

(b) of building which has a cubic content (as ascertained by external measurement) of not more than one thousand seven hundred and fifty cubic feet, or, where a greenhouse, conservatory, shed or prefabricated garage forms parts of a larger building, of that greenhouse, conservatory, shed or prefabricated garage, or

(c) without prejudice to the last foregoing paragraph, of an agricultural building (as defined in section two of the Rating and Valuation (Apportionment) Act, 1928, unless it is contiguous to another building which is not itself of kind mentioned in this or the last foregoing paragraph.

(3) No person shall, without the consent of the local authority undertake a demolition to which subsection (1) of this section applied unless —

(a) a notice specifying the building and the works of demolition intended to be carried out has been given to the local authority, and

(b) the local authority have served on the person undertaking the demolition a notice under subsection (1) of this section or twenty-eight days have elapsed since the giving of notice under paragraph (a) of this subsection, and a person contravening this subsection shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £500,

Provided that notice need not be given under this subsection of a demolition undertaken to comply with any requirement contained in —

- (a) a notice, order or other instrument issued by, or on the application of, the local authority in pursuance of any power conferred by or under an Act of Parliament, or
- (b) an injunction or other direction given in legal proceedings brought by the local authority, except where compliance with the requirement is effected, at the election of the person complying with it, either by undertaking the demolition or by taking some other steps.

(3A) More than one notice may be served under subsection (1) of this section in respect of any demolition but a second or subsequent notice shall not expressly or by implication contain a requirement incompatible with one contained in a previous notice.

(4) The time within which a notice may be served under subsection (1) of this section shall be —

- (a) where a notice was given under subsection (3) of this section, within six weeks from the giving of that notice, or such longer period as the person undertaking the demolition may in writing allow, and
- (b) in the case of a demolition undertaken to comply with a requirement contained in a demolition order under the Housing Act, 1957, at an time not more than seven days after serving on the person undertaking the demolition a copy of the demolition order in accordance with that Act, or within such longer period as the person undertaking the demolition may in writing allow, and
- (c) in any other case, within six weeks from the beginning of the demolition.

(5) A notice under subsection (1) of this section may require the person undertaking the demolition to take action under all or any of the following paragraphs, that is to say —

- (a) to shore up adjacent buildings,
- (b) to weatherproof any surfaces of an adjacent building which are exposed by the demolition and to make good any damage to adjacent premises,
- (c) to remove material or rubbish resulting from the demolition and clearance of this site,
- (d) to disconnect and seal at such points as the local authority may reasonably require any sewer, drain or water or gas pipe in or under the building to be demolished,
- (e) to remove any such sewer, drain or water or gas pipe and seal any sewer, drain or water or gas pipe with which the sewer, drain or pipe to be removed is connected,
- (f) to make good to the satisfaction of the local authority the surface of the ground disturbed by anything done under paragraph (d) or paragraph (e) of this subsection,
- (g) to take such precautions as the local authority may after consultation with the fire authority reasonably require with regard to the burning on the site of materials or rubbish or of any structure,
- (h) to maintain watch on the site at all times during the course or the demolition,
- (i) to make arrangements with the electricity undertakers for the disconnection of the supply of electricity to the building to be demolished, and with a view to preserving the safety and amenities of the public in the vicinity of the demolition may prescribe the matter in which, and the condition subject to which, the demolition is to be undertaken and the condition in which the site is to be left on completion.

(5A) A notice served under subsection (1) of this section within twenty-eight days after the giving of notice under paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section may also require part of the demolition to be deferred, but not beyond the expiry of the period for serving notice specified in subsection (4) of this section.

(6) No one shall be required under paragraph (b) except so far as it relates to the weatherproofing of surfaces, or paragraph (d) or paragraph (e) of subsection (5) of this section to carry out any work in land outside the premises on which the works of demolition are being carried out if he has no right to carry out that work, but, subject to the provisions of Part XII of the Public Health Act, 1936, with respect to the breaking open of streets, the person undertaking the demolition, or the local authority acting in his default, may break open any street for the purpose of complying with any such requirement.

(7) Nothing in subsection (5) of this section shall be construed as exempting any person from —

- (a) the obligation to obtain any consent required under section sixtyeight of the Third Schedule to the Water Act, 1945 (which relates to alterations in supply pipes and other apparatus) or under any similar enactment, or
- (b) any obligations with respect to the disconnection, removal or other alteration of a gas pipe under any regulations having effect under section 31 of the Gas Act, 1972.

and nothing in this section shall be construed as authorising any person to cut, alter or otherwise interfere with any electric line or apparatus of any statutory undertakers authorised to carry on an electricity undertaking.

(7A) Where the local authority serve notice of a requirement for the disconnection or removal of any sewer or water or gas pipe belonging to, or maintained or used by statutory undertakers, or in respect of the disconnection of the supply of electricity they shall send a copy of the notice, so far as it relates to that requirement, to the statutory undertakers.

(8) Before a person complies with any requirement under paragraph (d) or paragraph (e) of subsection (5) of this section he shall give at least forty-eight hours' notice to the local authority, and before he complies with paragraph (f) of that subsection, he shall give at least twenty-four hours' notice to the local authority; and a person who fails to comply with this subsection shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

(9) Subject to subsection (9A) of this section, the provisions of Part XII of the Public Health Act, 1936, with respect to appeals against, and the enforcement of, notices requiring the execution of works shall apply in relation to any notice given under subsection (1) of this section.

(9A) In relation to any requirement of a notice under subsection (1) of this section requiring deferment as provided in subsection (5A) of this section, section 290 of the Public Health Act, 1936 shall have effect subject to such modifications as are necessary and to the insertion at the end of subsection (6) of the words “but in any proceedings for an offence under this subsection it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence”.

(10) Among the grounds on which an appeal may be brought under subsection (3) of section two hundred and ninety of the Public Health Act, 1936, against a notice under subsection (1) of this section shall be —

- (a) in the case of a notice requiring an adjacent building to be shored up, that the owner of the building is not entitled to the support of that building by the building which is being demolished, and ought to pay, or contribute towards, the expenses of shoring it up; and
- (b) in the case of a notice requiring any surfaces of an adjacent building to be weatherproofed, or any damage to any adjacent premises to be made good, that the owner of the adjacent building ought to pay, or contribute towards, the expenses of weatherproofing those surfaces or of making good that damage.

(11) Where the grounds on which an appeal under the said section two hundred and ninety is brought include any ground specified in the last foregoing subsection, the appellant shall serve a copy of his notice of appeal on the person or persons referred to in that ground of appeal, and on the hearing of the appeal the court may make such order as it thinks fit in respect of the payment of, or contribution towards, the cost of the works by any such person, or as to how any expenses which may be recoverable by the local authority are to be borne as between the appellant any such other person.
